That critter is a barn owl and he doesn't seem bothered at all as his owner Bill Hughes uses him for an exhibit at the Sports Afield show held at Orinda School Tuesday night. Class members included exhibits on all types of outdoor events and safety practices.

Annexation Policy Stirs Sewer Action

5000 Acres Seek Annexation to Central District

One thousand dollars have been turned over to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District to pay for engineering studies to determine the cost of annexing most of Clayton and Ygnacio valleys.

An area of approximately 5000 acres, including Monte Gardens, El Monte, 80 per cent of Clayton Valley, Four Corners and 70 per cent of Ygnacio Valley, would be involved in the annexation if all parties agree.

The interest was generated after the meeting of directors of the Sanitary District last week when they issued a policy regarding annexation.

DIRECTORS agreed to annex areas at a cost of $150 per acre above and beyond the cost of sewerage and building trunk lines to the disposal plant in Pacheco.

Director Ernest Spiegel commented that "It might help defray the costs that we won't have to ask for much additional money to make the improvements within the district which are necessary."

The matter is expected to come before the County Boundary Commission next week. Ralph Dwyer of El Monte Diablos Improvement Association pointed out that boundaries must be established before petitions can be circulated.

IF PETITIONS are circulated requesting annexation, 75 per cent of the freeholders must sign in order for annexation to be accomplished.

District Engineer Gerry Horst-kotte stated that representatives of the area with whom he had talked were "very happy with the annexation terms."

"It is a fee," he said, "that guarantees the people here (within the present district) that they are not being sold down the river and at the same time guarantees new people sewer service."

THE DISTRICT would collect $750,000 if it annexed 5000 acres. This money would be "extra" as the annexes would have to sewer their own district through cash, bond issue or local improvement district proceedings, and build any necessary trunk lines to carry sewage to the disposal plant.

The money would come from a fee of $50 per acre which would represent the share in the cost of bond retirement and capital expenditures incurred by the residents of the district to date, and a fee of $100 which would go for expansion of the treatment plant to care for the additional load.

IN ADDITION, the standard connection fee of $100 per connection would be charged. Any of these funds which are not used directly for expansion of treatment plant facilities and the construction of large lines from the annexed district could be used for system expansion within the present district, such as the construction of parallel lines or the repair of existing facilities.

"The big thing is," commented Horst-kotte, "when you annex a large territory and one that has a proportionately high valuation, you derive money for assessed valuation far in excess of what we have enjoyed. That can be used for district improvements also. We could hire additional maintenance men, for example, without upping the tax rate."

Girl Scouts Honor Leader

Mrs. Elmer Fries and Mrs. Murray Sharp were hostesses for a surprise luncheon Wednesday honoring Mrs. Vernon Axelsson and Mrs. Charles Biesel. Mrs. Axelsson is Troop Leader for Girl Scout Troop 47 of Orinda.

The mothers of all the girls in her troop were present, and plans for the coming year were discussed.

Schools Receive $1978 Proceeds From 'Absurdia'

A check for $1978.21 was given to the Board of Trustees of the Orinda School District at their meeting Monday night at the Orinda School by the Orinda Mother's Club.

The sum is the profit from "Absurdia in Suburbia," presented recently. The money is earmarked for the purchase of phonographs for primary grades and folding tables for use in the cafeteria.

In other action, the board tabled the budget for next year. It was decided to call a special meeting for the budget after it is known how much money the district will receive from the state. The meeting will probably come in the next two weeks, according to Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

The board also asked Sheaff to get estimates on the cost of painting the Orinda school, and to prepare specifications and bids for a fence at the Gloria School and to get a cost estimate for repainting the roof on the Orinda School grounds.

The board appointed the following new teachers: Keith Burnham of Utah, Marilyn McPherson of San Jose State, Anne Haworth of San Mateo, Esther Johnson of Los Angeles, Jean Ricker of Berkeley, William Hester of Oakland, Margaret Nash of the College of the Pacific, Sara Sableman to teach vocal music and Lucille Moore to be librarian at the district.

Crusade Plan Goes On, Five Groups Out

A second meeting in a second attempt to join the Central Contra Costa area to the East Bay United Crusade will start at 7:45 p. m. Monday at Acalanes High School.

It follows a meeting held last week at the home of Richard Breuner in Orinda, where 13 people decided to set up a board of directors for the purpose of joining the East Bay fund drive.

THE FIRST ATTEMPT slumped when five charity organizations declared themselves against joining the crusade for this year as against two who were for it.

Since that time the Boy Scouts and Young Men's Christian Association have been joined by the Contra Costa Heart Association and the Contra Costa Cancer Association in support of the crusade.

Deed Restrictions Will Prohibit Business Rezoning at Crossroads

The problem of re-zoning five Moraga Estates lots from residential to retail business was solved for all practical purposes at the meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday noon at Casa Orinda.

The five owners of the lots on the east side of Moraga Highway between Southwood Drive and Overhill Road petitioned the County Planning Commission to approve the zoning change and asked the Orinda Association for its sanction.

HOWEVER, when the subject came up at the chamber meeting, Ramsay Underwood pointed out that deed restrictions would not allow the re-zoning.

The zoning cannot be changed from residential to retail business without the permission of every property owner in the area, he said, and there are approximately 150 of them.

HE ALSO POINTED out that the deed restrictions will be in effect until 1961, and that they take precedence over all other zoning ordinances, including those of the county.

The owners of the property are Dr. Wilbert F. Thomas, dentist who lives in Piedmont and practices in Oakland; F. W. Curtis, George O. Warner, Frank Batty, Merle A. Lindblom, L. H. Edbrooke and V. F. Baumnafner.

CURTIS COMMENTED that he knows about the zoning restrictions, "but that it would not necessarily require a petition of all the people in the area, just their approval."

"WE AREN'T GOING to make any fuss over this," he said, "I just felt that with the new highway coming through this would be the logical place for business development."

The homesites won't be as desirable as they were 10 years ago, but there would be plenty of room for a big market, with lots of parking space. We'll go along with whatever Orinda people want."

Curtis felt that the request represented good planning, no piecemeal planning such as has been engaged in in other parts of the county.

IN OTHER DISCUSSION, the chamber talked informally about the Pine Grove proposal of the East Bay Municipal Utilities District and investigated the possibility of getting a reproduction machine for mailing lists, postcards and other business.

Stanley Allen offered the chamber a large electric mimeograph machine. New President John Stoefel, Underwood and Andy Blalock will investigate the matter.

Business Group Asks Chamber to Get Plan Expert

A group of Orinda merchants and business property owners have recommended that the Chamber of Commerce employ a planning expert to determine the need for future business development.

An informal meeting, called at the Orinda School Wednesday night by Stanley Allen, came as a result of the Pine Grove shopping center proposed by the East Bay Municipal Utilities District. About 20 business and property owners were present.

"It was the unanimous opinion that future development of the area needs some good, concentrated study, and we recommend that the Chamber of Commerce, if necessary, engage the services of an expert," said Allen.

"We need a survey to find out how many customers we actually have and what we need in the way of shopping facilities," he added.

"No definite stand was taken on the Pine Grove suggestion," he added, "because we felt that we would have to have more facts. Our next move is exploratory, to determine how great is the need for a shopping center."

Phil Wagner, manager of the EBMUD properties division, said that his company had nothing new to offer at present and that they were waiting to see what the Orinda Association would do.

Well, At Least There's No Rain And No Summer

We found the weatherman trying to do a spring dance and looking quite foolish about the whole thing.

"The weather hasn't been much like spring," he said, "and I just thought I might try to get into the spirit of the season."

We calmed him down and got the following report.

For the period of May 28 through Wednesday night, the high was 73 degrees on May 30. The low was 41 degrees on Wednesday.

But best of all, there was no rain.

Harrold Resigns Fire Post After Twenty-six Years

Warren Harrold, Commissioner of the Orinda Fire Protection District for the past 26 years, has resigned, it was announced this week.

His resignation was accepted by the County Board of Supervisors at their meeting in Martinez Tuesday night.

His successor will be Charles W. Langridge, 216 El Teyonal Road.

Harrold, who has been a commissioner for 20 years, was a trustee for six years before that. His letter of resignation said:

"It seems to me that in the intervening time of 26 years much progress has been made in fire prevention work. In the early days it was bucket brigades and pumps and volunteers."

"At present there are two fire stations, 16 paid employees and eight pieces of equipment. My relations with my fellow commissioners and with the board of supervisors have been most cordial, sincere and cooperative."

H. L. Cummings, chairman of the board of supervisors, accepted the resignation with regret, and announced that he would send a personal letter to Harrold expressing his good wishes.

No reason for the resignation was given.

It Will Be Busy This Week for Eighth Graders

The graduating eighth graders at Orinda School can really look forward to a week of parties, including a graduation dance, and Sunday the whole class (107 of them) will enjoy a brunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Harner, 7 Oaks Circle.

The Orinda Mothers Club will provide the refreshments, with thanks to the Harners, who have opened up their home for the occasion.

Wednesday the Mothers Club is sponsoring a picnic at Orinda Park Pool for the graduates, including lunch. The party will last all day.

Thursday is the last day of school, and graduation will be June 13 at the Orinda Theatre at 2 p. m.

Following the graduation there will be a party at the Orinda School, sponsored by eighth grade mothers and the Mothers Club.

Thinks Ruling Preventing Lines Would Be Illegal

District Attorney Francis W. Collins said yesterday that an ordinance precluding utility companies from running high-power transmission lines overhead through business and residential areas would not appear to be legal.

The statement was a result of a request by the County Board of Supervisors for an opinion on the legality of such an ordinance.

THE SUPERVISORS made the request as the result of a resolution forwarded by the Orinda Association May 1.

The association has been directly concerned with the plans of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to build a 220,000 volt power line over Orinda Country Club and adjacent property.

Collins stated that he had contacted the PG&E and examined the right-of-way they now have and that they have previously owned. He pointed out that they are requesting 30 odd feet additional right-of-way which would not have to be deeded to them.

"AS FAR AS MY investigations have proceeded," he said, "and with a check on the legal authorities, it would not seem to permit the Board of Supervisors to pass such a type of zoning ordinance."

"The board has not indicated to me that even if it were legal to pass such an ordinance that they would do so," he added. "I am writing George Hauerken to that effect today." Hauerken is a director of the Orinda Association, and one of the originators of the resolution to the board of supervisors.

"I will come to a definite solution within ten days," said Collins, "and I will notify Hauerken and the Board of Supervisors of my opinion."

H. V. WORTHINGTON, district manager for PG&E, commented that "We furnished the district attorney with the facts and a summary of developments up to this time, and he is taking it under advisement. All we have done is to notify him of our intentions."

In action leading to the request for a legal decision, the PG&E had filed condemnation proceedings against the Orinda Country Club for the additional right-of-way necessary.

IN PROTEST against the proposed line Orinda residents have been sending letters to PG&E directors. The alternatives have been suggested of running the power lines from Orinda corners up to and along the crest of the Berkeley Hills on East Bay Municipal Utility District property, or to use the present easement more efficiently by transmitting the greater power requirements in 330 KV or higher voltage lines.

Membership chairman will be Doug Robertson of Lafayette; program, Vice President Victor Johnson, Lafayette; health and community welfare, Dr. Edward Rogers, Orinda, a member of the public health faculty at the University of California; ways and means, Mrs. W. New officers serving with Mrs. Krotz are Victor Johnson, Lafayette, vice president; Mrs. Henry Peshon, Walnut Creek, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ernest Spiegel, Orinda, recording secretary; Paul Johnson, Lafayette, treasurer; Tom Jeffries, Lafayette, auditor.

Acalanes High School Principal Stanley Walgren told the club approximately 250 will graduate this month, with about the same number entering Acalanes.

The last three days of the contest all subscriptions turned in will be placed in a locked ballot box in the SUN office in Lafayette, in order that no one but members may know how much they have in final returns.

Votes will be counted by well known citizens so that impartiality may be assured.

After that, the winner will drive off in a brand new Chevrolet "One-Fifty" sedan, complete with key-turn starting, and the second place member will start packing for the trip to Mexico.

Young GOP Group Protests PG&E Power Line Plans

The Orinda Young Republicans voted unanimously at their regular monthly meeting May 27 to back the action of the Orinda Association on its stand against construction of the high-power overhead transmission lines through business and residential areas.

Jim Moriarity, president, after relinquishing chairmanship of the meeting, offered the same resolution adopted by the Orinda Association.

This resolution requests the board of supervisors to adopt an ordinance precluding construction of high-power overhead transmission lines through business and residential areas if the adoption of such an ordinance is legal.

A resolution was also unanimously adopted instructing the secretary to write PG&E management and directors urging them to reroute their proposed line to a non-residential route, or place the line underground.

Moriarity stated that in taking this action the Young Republicans have no intention of bringing politics into the issue. "We are acting as an organized group of Orinda residents and we feel that although we are a political organization, we have a responsibility to do everything in our power for the benefit of the community in which we live," he stated.

Mike White Named Outstanding Senior All Around Athlete at Assembly

By ERWIN MATTSO

ONE OF THE BIG EVENTS of the week was held Wednesday when Acalanes held its annual awards assembly. The event has become so big that there is talk of having two assemblies next year as so many awards are involved. Up to now all spring awards, athletic and academic, have been made at this time in one meeting.

The end result has been that so little time has been allotted to each person receiving the awards that it has become a race against the stop watch.

In some cases 15 to 20 awards have been given in two minutes which is no mean accomplishment in itself.

MANY FEEL that the academic and athletic presentations should come in separate assemblies and each allowed a little more time. Chances are that such a change will be made next year.

Mike White was the lone entrant from Acalanes in the state track meet held at Fresno last Friday and came through with his top performance when he cleared six feet in the high jump. The leap wasn't good enough to place, with the winner in the event topping 6 feet 4 inches, showing the caliber of competition.

Mike White clinaxed a brilliant high school athletic record when he was awarded the coaches' trophy as the outstanding senior all-around athlete.

Mike was a regular on the varsity football eleven and rated as one of, if not the best, pass-snagging ends in the league.

He was a regular on the basketball club and was one of the top scorers.

BOB BORGHESE was last year's winner when the trophy was first put up and Mike's name now goes in the number 2 spot. In addition he received an individual trophy.

To top things off White also walked off with the Walnut Creek Rotary Award going to the outstanding senior trackman, so all in all, Mike had a good day. An orchid to Mike for copying three varsity letters and two major awards in his senior year, a remarkable achievement for a remarkable young athlete!

Mike intends to enter the University of California next fall and could well be heard of on the basis of his past record and competitive spirit.

The club took a field trip May 17 and traveled to Fort Ross. The weather was against good picture making, but those who went along enjoyed the get together and a picnic lunch at White's Beach.

The club fared very well in the NAC Interclub meeting held at the San Leandro Camera Club on May 22. James Hokanson carried off first award in the Salon Division. "Mac" McVicker was second in the advanced group. Roger Black was second in the beginners group, and second in the advanced group and Don Hanson fourth in the color division.

The Parks Jets from Parks Air Force Base will tangle with the Forbrag Realtors softball nine tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Walnut Creek City Park as the first week of league play rolls to an end.

Super Saver Market, who started the season with a win, will tackle the team from Tiny's Hut, last year's champions, in the nightcap beginning at 9 p. m.

THE SEASON officially opened Monday though local aggregations have been playing practice tilts under the lights for the past few weeks.

An added attraction this year will be an invitational tourney at the end of the season, according to Hector Miles, president of the Walnut Creek Softball Association.

In a single game Monday, Super Saver downed the Grodin crew 10-6 to get a head start in league play.

Pitcher Johnny Daylong is credited with the win. He was beamed in the middle of the game by a hard grounder that bounced wrong. After two minutes on the turf, he came around to finish up the tilt.

The Super Saver nine came back Tuesday night to be bounced 5-2 in a non-league game. The Tri-City team from Rodeo handed the loss to the locals in the first game of the evening.

In the nightcap Tiny's Hut handed the Parks Jets a shellacking, 17-4, to start their season looking like a good chance for a championship repeat.

GRODINS made a terrific comeback in the first game Wednesday night when they smothered Frank's Liquors of Pittsburg 16-0 in another non-league tilt. John Henson, who Matters of vital importance to the Home Building Industry in Contra Costa County are to be discussed at the General Membership Dinner Meeting of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County Wednesday in Martinez.

Dan C. Peacock, Jr., Orinda, national director of the contractor's group, is to report on the Directors Meeting of the National Association of Home Builders held in Washington, D. C. recently.

A report from the members of Liquor batters.

Last night, after press time, the Walnut Creek Elks took on the Alameda Elks in an Elks League game, and the Walnut Creek softball girls played their first game of the season.

the Contractors Association, appointed by the Board of Supervisors to redraft the County Subdivision Ordinance No. 217 with the interested groups will bring the ordinance which is scheduled for its second public hearing the following day.

Dair A. Tandy, Richmond, Dan C. Peacock and Frederick C. Kracke, executive vice president of the Association, are to review the status of labor negotiations on the contracts for the 1953-54 years. The contracts with the Building Trades Crafts expired on April 30, however, work has continued during the negotiations.

Harold E. Parker, the chairman of the Association's Building Problems Committee, which last month recommended a review of the Inspection Costs on Street Improvement Work which they claimed were "exorbitant," will review other problems affecting the industry.

Adoptions Group Elects Officers, Accepts Members

The Contra Costa County Adoption Advisory Committee met last week at the office of the Adoption Unit, Social Service Department in Martinez.

Robert C. Keyston, Lafayette, William Bets, Concord and Emily Axtell, Richmond, were welcomed as new members.

Steven Welch Jr. was elected chairman for the coming year to replace D. H. Fibush, and Miss Lillian Wurzel was elected vice-chairman.

Program for the coming year was planned. The committee will study some facets of independent adoption investigations, now handled by the State Department of Social Welfare, considering whether it may be advisable for its function to be transferred to the local adoption unit. In addition, it will concern itself with methods of facilitating the sharing of adoption resources between counties, possibly through regionalization of the program.

Keyston presented the format of a pamphlet on services available to unmarried mothers prepared by the auxiliary. It was approved by the committee and the agency, and plans for its completion by the women's group were outlined and approved.

Other members of the committee are: Ernest Lasell Sr., Dr. Arlene Parker and Mrs. S. R. H. Banks.

Mrs. C. Dwight Birch of Lafayette was present as a representative of the adoptions auxiliary. Also present were Mrs. Margaret Richter, Miss Muriel Nelson, and W. G. Golden, social service director.

Cubs to Hold Final Meeting

Cub Scout Pack 211 will have its last meeting of the school year to night at the Orinda Community Church at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Roger Stark, Cubmaster, will have charge of the meeting. The highlight of the evening will be a talk by Barbara Stark on her participation in the Olympic Games last year at Helsinki.

Meetings will resume with the beginning of the next school year.

No. 57324

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned Herman Silverman, publisher and editor of the "ORINDA SUN" has filed a Petition in the above entitled Court alleging in substance that the ORINDA SUN is a newspaper established, printed and published at regular intervals for the dissemination of local and telegraphic news and intelligence of a general character; that said newspaper has been continuously established and in existence under that name for at least one year preceding the filing of said Petition; that said newspaper has a bona fide subscription list of paying subscribers; that said newspaper is both printed and published in the township of Walnut Creek, County of Contra Costa, State of California, for at least one year preceding the filing of said Petition.

NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN that Petitioner intends to apply to the above entitled Court for an Order declaring said ORINDA SUN a newspaper of general circulation within the township of Walnut Creek, County of Contra Costa, State of California, and that said application will be made to the said Court in Department No. 3 thereof, at the Hall of Records, in the City of Martinez, County of Contra Costa, State of California, on the 8th day of June, 1953, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. of said day or as soon thereafter as Counsel can be heard.

Larry Lucas, 15, is keeping right in touch with what is going on in Orinda and at Acalanes High School, even though he is in a cast from his neck to his feet.

Larry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lucas, 6 North Lane, Orinda, contracted polio in 1943 and has been suffering ill effects ever since. Although he has been mobile until last month, this is the final stage where surgery takes over to straighten out his back, left weak by the disease.

LARRY IS IN Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Oakland, and he has his own telephone by the bed. He does pretty much as he pleases except for once a day, when the doctors come in and tighten the hinged cast to help straighten his spine. This will continue every day until surgery in about a month.

It's something like having braces on your teeth, only full length, but you won't hear Larry complaining about it. He doesn't have the time. "I READ, and listen to the radio and talk to my classmates at school," he said. "And then I visit a girl in Room 11 every day, she's kind of cute." She is also 14, just about Larry's age.

He will welcome telephone calls from anybody who wants to say hello, but he asks that no phone calls be made between 2 and 3 p.m. or 7 and 8 p.m., because those are visiting hours. The number is Humboldt 3-5720, Extension 461.

Larry's hobby is motor scooters, of which he has two. He had three, but one was stolen when he loaned it to a friend, it ran out of gas and was left by the roadside.

"I THINK I'll give up motor scooters, though," he added, "and get myself a car when I get out of the hospital. I'll be 16 then."

Larry will be able to return to school about a month after it starts next semester, and will resume his activities as a sophomore at Acalanes.

A concert in November is scheduled with Kenneth Smith, whose bass-baritone voice has won acclaim for his appearances with the NBC-TV Opera Theater productions.

A pianist of outstanding reputation, Rudolf Firkusny, will appear in January. This artist is already known to many persons of this area through his previous appearances in the Bay Area.

William Primrose, violinist, will play a repeat performance locally having been presented by the Acalanes Association in its first season five years ago. Primrose is now in England to play a command performance as part of the Coronation.

Time Magazine has referred to him as "the world's finest violin player."

In March, the season will end with the Euzkadi Ballet, a group of 30 Basque singers and dancers.

District Asks Division Vote

Contra Costa County may have its own PTA district as result of action taken by the 16th District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers last week.

The district has submitted a request to the State CPCT Board for another election to divide the district at the Alameda-Contra Costa County Line.

In an election on the same issue this spring the division was defeated.

The district includes all of Contra Costa County and Alameda, Berkeley, and all territory south of San Leandro in Alameda County.

The district has a membership of 51,653, 8,000 of which were added along with 13 new units last year.

Cub Pack 32 to Hold Last Meet

The last Cub Pack 32 meeting of the year has been postponed until next Friday at the Orinda School at 7:30 p.m.

The present group of fine people who make up the officers of the Pack will be replaced by others.

Cubmaster Bob Rochester will be replaced by Glen Holtwick and Assistant Cubmaster Holtwick will be replaced by Larry Collins and William Miller.

Treasurer John McFarland will continue and Den Mother advisor Ruth Burde will be replaced by Lucille Phelps. Membership chairman June Thaman will continue in office, as will awards chairman Bob Rochester.

Publicity will be issued by Vera Ward instead of Elizabeth Miles.

The outgoing officers have engendered a great deal of interest in Cubbing among new parents and it is felt that they deserve a vote of thanks.

The charter of the Pack has been renewed through the Lions Club for the coming year. The Institutional Representative from the club is Joseph C. Smith, Chairman of the Pack Committee is Dr. Coit Eilers, and Assistant Chairman is Stanley Hunn, who was present at Monday night's Pack Officers meeting.

There will be another baseball game at the Sleepy Hollow School tomorrow morning, Pack 32 will play Pack 211.

On Friday night, Don Woodcock will be introduced to the Pack as a candidate for membership.

Throughout the past school year the Cub Scouts in their separate dens have been taken on field trips to many places, including the Oakland Police Station, an overnight trip to Pardee Dam (near Jackson), the Snow Museum, to the Tribune, cook-outs on Mt. Diablo, the Ford Assembly Plant in Richmond, to the Submarine Base in Alameda, the Berkeley Pier, a destroyer off Treasure Island, United Airlines assembly plant, Langendorf Bakery, Fairchild, Fun Land in San Francisco, wild flower hikes, and the Planetarium in Golden Gate Park.

Firkusny, Smith To Give Concerts

Five artists will be presented by Acalanes Community Concerts Association during the 1953-54 season, the specific dates to be announced.

The board of directors announced the choices following a recent membership drive which resulted in a sellout of available memberships.

Nan Merriam, mezzo-soprano, will open the season locally with her concert in October. She has been soloist with the New York Philharmonic and the Philadelphia Philharmonic, and has been featured on many special broadcasts both in this country and in Europe.

A concert in November is scheduled with Kenneth Smith, whose bass-baritone voice has won acclaim for his appearances with the NBC-TV Opera Theater productions.

A pianist of outstanding reputation, Rudolf Firkusny, will appear in January. This artist is already known to many persons of this area through his previous appearances in the Bay Area.

Trimbles Camp Out In the High Sierra

Mr. and Mrs. George Trimble Jr. and George Trimble Sr. returned last week from a beautiful but strenuous mountain camping week in the high Sierra along the South Fork of the Kings River.

They motored to Lone Pine, Independence, and Bishop. Nights camping out were very cold but sun was hot in the desert country, they report.

While on one of the mountain peaks they heard the explosion of the last atomic gun firing in Nevada and saw rocks falling on mountain slopes all about them. The echoing from mountain side to mountain side lasted many minutes. A storm brewing in the mountains drove them down to the desert and home.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Dr. Robert Kerner is a well known figure in the area because 1) his daughter and family the Eugene Shurtleffs live in Orinda, 2) many of you who went to the University of California took his courses, 3) those of you who went to his lecture for the Orinda Branch series know that he is a recognized authority on Russia and the Slavic countries.

As a result of the latter he frequently makes long distance and overseas telephone calls to gentlemen with unpronounceable and unspellable names. During one such maneuver he was having a great deal of difficulty trying to make the telephone operator understand the name of the person he was calling (you know the old B as in boy routine) and finally running out of patience he howled "What is the matter with you anyway?" There was a pause and then the operator said sweetly "Sorry but we are not permitted to give out that information."

And that is where we differ from the telephone company. Being a veritable sieve for information, first comes the charming tea given by Mrs. William Freeman for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Miller Freeman Jr., who has recently moved into the John Manner's home in Happy Valley. Hostess and guest of honor greeted their many friends from both town and country with beautiful white carnation leis around their shoulders. The tea which turned out to be one of those cool pastel, fluffy punches accompanied by tasty morsels of this and that was served from a table in the patio decorated with white peony blossoms. Touches of yellow in the living room were accented by a tremendous bowl of yellow calla lilies. The weather was perfect, and the gay colors worn by the guests made a very pretty picture indeed.

The Ben Holabirds gathered together their friends on Sunday evening for a cocktail and nibble party. Nibble—Humph. Since when has a whole ham, a hot casserole and a complete table of accompanying delectables been a nibble? White stock, white azaels and white gladiolas accented the colorful rooms and—spring being what it is this year—a roaring fire in the fireplace.

ANOTHER PARTY was held at the Seven Oaks Ranch home of the Thomas Morans for the benefit of the Santa Maria Branch of the Junior Guild of Providence Hospital. Approximately 300 guests gathered in the patio and gardens. Chairman was Mrs. John Rarig and co-chairman was Mrs. Thomas Moran Jr.

Any of you who were with us a couple of weeks ago and read about Small Daughter's favorite caterpillar might like to know what happened. Some people would lead you to believe that a caterpillar's psyche is emotionally adjusted to living in a Mason jar only if said Mason jar is kept in the kitchen. Being somewhat of a finicky old parcel we couldn't readjust our psyche for such an arrangement. After a certain amount of noisy emotion we moved the caterpillar in his jar to Small Daughter's room. With fascination we watched him weave a cocoon and then in due course he was shoved to the rear of the bookcase along with Buck Rogers, Archie and Lili Abner and completely forgotten.

In the peaceful calm of a subsequent evening there was heard to permeate the silence an unusual fluttering sound—about 50% less noise-makes than an excavating woodpecker and 50% more noise-makes than a surfacing gold fish. Our first thought was of marauders but after one startled glance Small Daughter bounced to her bookcase hollering "My Caterpillar!" Sure enough, the cocoon was bustin' out all over and a moth was bating his way around the jar. He was promptly given his freedom out the window and we breathed a sigh of relief, but last night as we were standing on the front porch waving goodbye to our friends a moth fluttered past and landed on our sleeve. As we voiced our apologies and gently whooshed him away we thought "He probably thinks we are his mother."

The U.S.O. at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center has been doing a thriving business the last few Sundays with the following hostesses: Mademoiselle Suele West Marcia Wiest, Nathalie Bales, Bonnie Smith, Joan Tracy, Roberta Shirling, Thea Adams, Ada Vitally, Dorothy Floyd, Phyllis Anderson, Jackie Pool, Mary Nevin, Diane Bray, LeAnn Court, Juanita Cavanaugh, Doreen Bongars, Diane McMullin, Dorothy Turner, Margaret Soares, Pat Smith, Judy Rugh, Faye Davis, Muffie Davis, Darlene Carlson, Terry Probert, Dinny Beebe, Marjorie Blankenship, Marilyn Kittridge, Barbara Hunter, Joan Black, Colleen Roberts, Thelma Wright, Elaine Anderson, Felice McDonald, Irene Jacuzzi, Barbara Shusta, Carol Maxham, Margie Welch, Barbara Westland, Barbara Riark and Marilyn Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Marsh spent a weekend at Carmel recently. Mrs. Fred Mulvaney, just back from Portland, is turning on her heels and driving right smack back again with Mr. Mulvaney—this time on a business trip.

A STEAK BARBECUE, swim and dancing party to be at the Orinda Country Club on June 13—put on by Cottonwood Branch of the Children's Hospital—ten dollars a couple—sounds like fun—call Mrs. Richard Kendall at Orinda 2604 for tickets and then go home and iron your cotton dress because that is what people will be wearing.

One thing about living in the country you automatically become contaminated with 1) poison oak 2) hay fever 3) a previously unsuspected interest in roads, plumbing and your appearance in blue jeans, and, last but not least, a neighborhood spirit which adds definite lustre to the area. As for instance: the neighborhood tea given recently by Mrs. William Judge ostensibly for the purpose of entertaining and introducing new neighbors Mesdames W. J. Gleason, W. M. Glosser and Thomas Mann.

And so Mothers brace yourselves—school will be out next week—we will do the best we can to gather the news for you from various swimming pools but remember—school is out at our house, too. That is all.

Episcopalians to Hold Communion

On this, the First Sunday after Trinity, the Reverend Charles M. Hill, vicar of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, will conduct a Holy Communion service for his congregation at 5 p.m. in the Orinda Community Church Chapel.

Music will include the offertory anthem, "O Saviour of the World" by Goss, which will be sung by members of the St. Stephen's Choir under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Fahay. Mrs. Fahay will play as organ selections, "Priere" by Boellmann and "Fantasia in F" by Polleri.

Announcement has been made by Hill that the Wednesday evening Holy Communion and study sessions will continue throughout the summer months at the regular time of 7:30 p.m.

It is urged by Hill that all local Episcopalians note the regular Sunday worship hour during the school vacation period. Beginning June 14 Sunday services will be held at the new morning time of 8:30, instead of the customary 5 p.m., which has prevailed during fall, winter, and spring.

Church Tells of Schedule Change

The Orinda Community Church announced a change of schedule for the summer months which will telescope the usual two Sunday morning services into one to be held at 10 a.m. beginning June 14.

The entire program of the church and Sunday school will be held at that hour under the administration of Ray Fowler, who will take personal charge of the junior age group.

A summer curriculum is ordered for each of the departments in which the life of Paul is featured. An unusual part of this program is the showing of recently completed sound motion pictures each Sunday for children above the third grade. Each will deal with an episode in the life of the apostle. Mrs. Rudy Grah and Mrs. John Ogden have assumed responsibility for kindergarten and primary groups.

It's Hi Ho for the Outdoor Life As We Pedal Over Hill and Dale

A hardy group of Orinda mothers has succumbed to the lure of the open road and formed a unique organization.

At least it's unique for Orinda, which abounds in hills.

Mrs. Sybil Sellers, 60 Moraga Vie, decided about six months ago that she needed some exercise and fresh air, and that the best way to get it was via the bicycle.

SHE STARTED out bicycling merrily up and down Orinda hills (mostly down, and walking up, she said), with a few other women occasionally accompanying her, until she ran into a bit of misfortune.

It seems that a friendly dog was intrigued with the manner in which the front wheel of the bike operated, and put a tentative paw between the spokes. The dog was uninjured, but Mrs. Sellers crawled from the resulting heap of bicycle, dog and Mrs. Sellers with a broken rib.

About a month ago the organization was revived (and so had been Mrs. Sellers), and Mrs. Etta Hill joined the "active list."

These two, and anybody else who can be persuaded, ride every day.

"OUR GOAL," said Mrs. Sellers, "is to make Moraga-and-Back without dying. Mrs. Hill and I are getting into pretty good shape now that we do this every day, but it is a little slower when a group goes along."

"When a big crowd goes," she continued, "we pedal about a block; have a cigarette, pedal a block more, stop and chat for half an hour, and then continue."

"We also stop along the way at neighbors' homes for coffee and a little chat," she added, "which makes a kind of friendly affair out of the trip."

Mrs. Sellers commented that the group had no name as yet, but that several of them had considered calling it "Minus Bingles."

"THE ONLY trouble with that," and she smiled, "is that I have gained three pounds since I started."

The group meets every day at Mrs. Sellers' home and rides for an hour or so . . . whatever time can be spared from the housework.

She invited anybody interested to come along and said that the only requirements are "a bicycle and stamina." Coffee will be provided by kind-hearted friends, with the possible exception of a stop at the Orinda Crossroads," she added.

Anyone interested can contact her at Orinda 8134.

"And maybe next week we'll make it to Moraga," she added.

Chapter Four

Doggies in the window? And how! And we haven't even had the nerve to put some of them in the window.

Here they are:

DOGGIE NO. 1: California Casual Carpet, Sandalwood color. The boys downtown have sold lots of this stuff at the Sunset-advertised price of $4.95 square yard. We've tried our darndest to get rid of it at $3.95, but for some reason we're still stuck with about 50 yards of this color in 12-foot width. On a cash basis you can walk out of here with it at $3.50 per yard

DOGGIES NO. 4 and infinitum: This place just can't sell ready-made curtains (although our custom curtain business is really rolling). I figured it wrong and took on a slug of assorted curtains of all shapes and sizes. They're worth up to $35 a pair. To make it easy for everybody, we'll sell them, per pair, at

(Hustle on this; some are really worth $35)

DOGGIE NO. 2: A couple of months ago I thought we could do a hot-shot business in ready made draperies. How wrong can you be? The quicker I get rid of them, the better I'll feel. Benes' Driftwood Sculpture in Show

The driftwood sculpture of Dr. Bohus Benes will have a delightful background at the quaint Artists Market, 1045 Stuart Street, Lafayette, Sunday, where a gala opening preview is scheduled for the members, and their friends, of Outdoor Art Shows, Inc.

Chairman Helen Noble and her committee members are enthusiastic about the success of former previews and although the prime objective is to meet and view the artist's work on exhibition, it also affords the members a chance to enjoy a relaxing afternoon in charming surroundings. Refreshments are served to further add a note of informality and pleasure.

Mrs. Edith Dinkin and Mrs. John Ellis, active participants in the Artists Market, are eagerly awaiting this particular opening as a great deal of interest has already been expressed in Dr. Benes' driftwood sculpture.

Dr. Benes has a distinguished diplomatic background and has traveled and studied extensively in all the art centers of Central Europe. He has been interested in art and sculpture for more than thirty years, and his inclination towards driftwood sculpture came from his love for the beaches of those countries which he visited.

Benes rarely works from a shapeless chunk or square block of wood, although he does not entirely exclude from his sculpture the conventional wooden medium, but he continues to be fascinated by the rich variety of forms and shapes of millions of tons of wood lying on the beaches.

The Artists Market will be open to the general public after the preview and Dr. Benes' driftwood sculpture will be on exhibit from Tuesday through July 3. The Market is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 1 to 4 p.m.

Another feature to be offered at the Artists Market will be a series of four lessons in driftwood sculpture by Dr. Benes. These lessons will start Wednesday, from 1 to 3 p.m. For further information call Lafayette 2930.

University Women Asked to Support UN Appropriations

Members of the Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women, have been asked to give citizen support of budget appropriations for the United Nations, according to Mrs. Sherman Camp, Legislative Chairman, and Mrs. Paul Gaboury, International Relations Chairman. These appropriations are now being considered by the House and Senate.

In letters to Mrs. Camp, and Mrs. Gaboury, the two AAUW committees in these fields called for individual and group actions, saying:

"If you are prepared to act, write to your own Senators and Congressmen today, and outline for them the thought of your own group on the importance of adequate appropriations for this tremendously important organization. A vote of the agencies, it is hoped, that the entire country is opposed to the U. N. It is up to us and other interested citizens to correct this erroneous impression."

AAUW members were informed that unless there is citizen support of the U. N. and its affiliated agencies, it is feared that the 1954 budget submitted by President Eisenhower and Secretary Dulles would be cut.

"As small a cut as $325,000 could eliminate the UNESCO Relations staff which also serves as the Secretariat for the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO," the letter pointed out, warning that "such a cut would cripple United States participation in UNESCO."

GOP Women Report On Weekly Activities

Mrs. Donn Court, president of the Lafayette Republican Women's Club was extremely pleased with the success of the benefit tea and Art-in-Action show which took place at the Vaid Jellon residence Thursday.

Mrs. Court expressed her thanks to the workers and said that the splendid cooperation of the various committees in charge, headed by Mrs. Stewart Dinwiddie and Mrs. Robert Smith, was largely responsible for the successful event.

Mrs. Stiefvator, who undertook to commandeer the refreshment committee who contacted all local Republican residents and the various ticket committees, plus numerous other "behind the scenes" workers, really devoted all their energies to working on the benefit whose purpose was to augment the coffers of the Republican Club, for the year ahead.

A crowd of local and East Bay residents was on hand to watch the various artists at work. The painting exhibits were outstanding — all thanks to the cooperation of the Artists' Market in Lafayette, and the College of Arts and Crafts in Berkeley.

Mrs. Johnson invited the presidents to meet with her in Pittsburg Tuesday to discuss plans for cooperation between clubs the coming year. Friday Assemblyman Don Doyle invited a group of local and county representatives to meet with him in Sacramento to meet Goodwin Knight.

Family Portrait . . .

JULIAN AND HELEN UNRUH knew where they wanted to live way back in 1949 when they built their home at 53 La Campana, Orinda. There weren't as many people out here then to tell them how much they would like it, but they have decided to raise their family right here.

The present family consists of Eric, left center, and Tom, right center. Mrs. Unruh pointed out that Tom can always be identified by the fact that he had a tooth knocked out when he was a little over a year old and it hasn't grown back in yet. He's now 6. Eric is 7 and in the second grade.

Members of the family who didn't come in at the right time to have their picture taken are Penny, the Dachshund, and Cookie the cat. Mr. Unruh is Assistant Vice President of the American Trust Company, and makes his headquarters at their main office in Oakland. He has also found time to establish a Boy Scout Rifle Range at Camp Hampton, while Assistant Scout Master of Explorer Post 300, and attend Oakland Kiwanis Club meetings regularly.

He also manages to get in a little fishing, hunting and woodworking.

Mrs. Unruh is busy not only being a mother, but she is past president of the Orinda Nursery School, secretary of the Orinda Mothers' Club and program chairman of the Orinda Children's Art Center.

And as she says about both of them, "of course, you have to be a good gardener in Orinda."

"I used to pull weeds by the hour," she added, "but now we have ground cover all over the place . . . it's wonderful."

The Unruh's also noted that the only hobby the youngsters seem to have developed is seeing who can wear out his shoes first.

Directors elected were Fred Bold, Jack Bruhl, Harold Robinson, Mrs. Howard Flanders, Mrs. James Hoy, Marion Joseph, William McIntosh, Leland L. Medsker, Mrs. M. L. Stauffer, William Biegerstaff, Miss Gladys Tobin, Marshall Taylor, Colonel Francis Clune, William G. Golden, Mrs. J. P. Brewer, Hal C. Forsey, C. J. Pertuit, The Rev. Robert Carlson, G. K. Peakes' Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Peakes, 3434 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Saturday at home.

Only the immediate family was present for the quiet celebration.

Peakes is a retired member of the Lafayette Fire Department, and the father of the present chief, Shirley Peakes.

Soil Important Factor in Plans For Lawn Care

Lawns grow best on sandy loam and loam soils. A loam soil is made up of 50 to 65 per cent sand, not more than 20 per cent clay, and 10 to 15 per cent organic matter. Loams are usually fertile, hold moisture well, drain well, and are easily pulverized.

Mucks and peats are not suitable for lawns. You can distinguish these from good, dark loams by their light weight when dry. Mucks and peats are excellent sources of organic matter for mixing with soils lacking organic matter.

CLAY, clay loam, or silt loam are less desirable than loams for lawns. They drain very slowly, stay wet and soft for long periods and soon become rough and uneven. If your soil is like this, remove the top three or four inches, grade, and replace with two to three inch of sand or sandy loam and one to two inches of organic matter.

Then mix thoroughly with the underlying soil to a depth of six to eight inches. Peat, muck, commercial peatmoss, well-rotted manure, compost are all satisfactory for this purpose.

SOILS THAT ARE too sandy let water through them too freely, and they are low in organic matter. To produce a good lawn soil from sands, remove about four inches of the surface. Then grade the sub-surface to the desired contour and evenly spread about three inches of clay and an inch or more of humus. Use a spading fork to thoroughly mix the soil to a depth of six to eight inches.

Your Garden

Peat Moss, Home Made Compost Will Make Effective Soil Conditioners

By BERT WRIGHT

A GOOD MANY AUTHORS of articles on various phases of gardening have sacrificed realism and practicality in their detailed recommendations on the care and feeding of plants.

In article after article I see reference to "enriching the soil with plenty of well-rotted manure" or "feed the planting lightly with bone meal once a month."

Now, fellow gardeners, how many of you are in a position to follow such recommendations? Very few, I will venture to predict. For well-rotted manure and bone meal are as difficult for the average city or suburban gardener to find as men in a women's garden club meeting.

Manure is an excellent soil conditioner and a fair source of plant food, though its scarcity and odor make its use next to impossible in town. Bone meal, on the other hand, commands such a good price as an animal feed supplement that it has almost disappeared from garden supply stores.

THE OLD raw bone meal with its "fragrance" was a source of phosphorus and some nitrogen. What little bone meal that can be found today, however, is the steam-dried variety and though the fragrance has been cooked away, so has most of the nitrogen supplying power.

The beginning gardener, who is long on reference reading but short on experience, can waste a lot of effort searching for a source of barnyard manure or bone meal similar to the old raw bone meal.

Confused About Walnut Spraying?

With spray season now in full swing, many Contra Costa walnut growers are confused about when to spray for codling moth. University of California Farm Advisor Milton R. Bell is finding.

The right time, he points out, is when walnuts of the Payne variety have an average cross-sectional diameter of approximately 1/2 inch. Other varieties, regardless of size, should be sprayed at the same time the Paynes are sprayed.

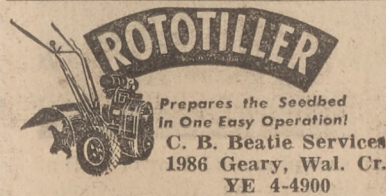

This means, for example, that Concord, while being sprayed, will be larger than 1/2 inch, while Eureka will be smaller. This makes the job much easier than a lot of growers thought. Many are under the impression that every variety has to be 1/2 inch in diameter when sprayed.

The only exception, the farm advisor said, is on the late varieties with tips of the nuts still receptive for pollination. These should wait until the tips start to turn brownish.

But if these varieties have not been wormy in your orchard in the past, then they do not need a codling moth spray this year, Bell said.

Spray dosages and timing are fully explained in a walnut spray chart available free at the Cowell office of the University of California Farm Advisor.

THE HAPPY FACES of those students at Acalanes High School who are graduating this June are pictured above. While most of these seniors are just finishing their secondary work, some finished up in February and are being graduated now because no ceremonies were held at mid-semester.

Acalanes Graduation Sunday, June 14, on Memorial Field; Baccalaureate June 7

High school diplomas will go to 282 Acalanes High School seniors from Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek at outdoor ceremonies at the school Sunday, June 14.

Baccalaureate services for the seniors will be held at 6 p.m. this Sunday. The program will be held in the school auditorium.

Christian Science Sermon to Be 'God the Creator'

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read Sunday in all Christian Science churches. These verses will be read from the Eighty-ninth Psalm:

"O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine; as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them" (8, 11).

The following correlative passage will also be included in the Sermon, among the citations from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The real jurisdiction of the world is in Mind, controlling every effect and recognizing all causation as vested in divine Mind" (p. 379).
